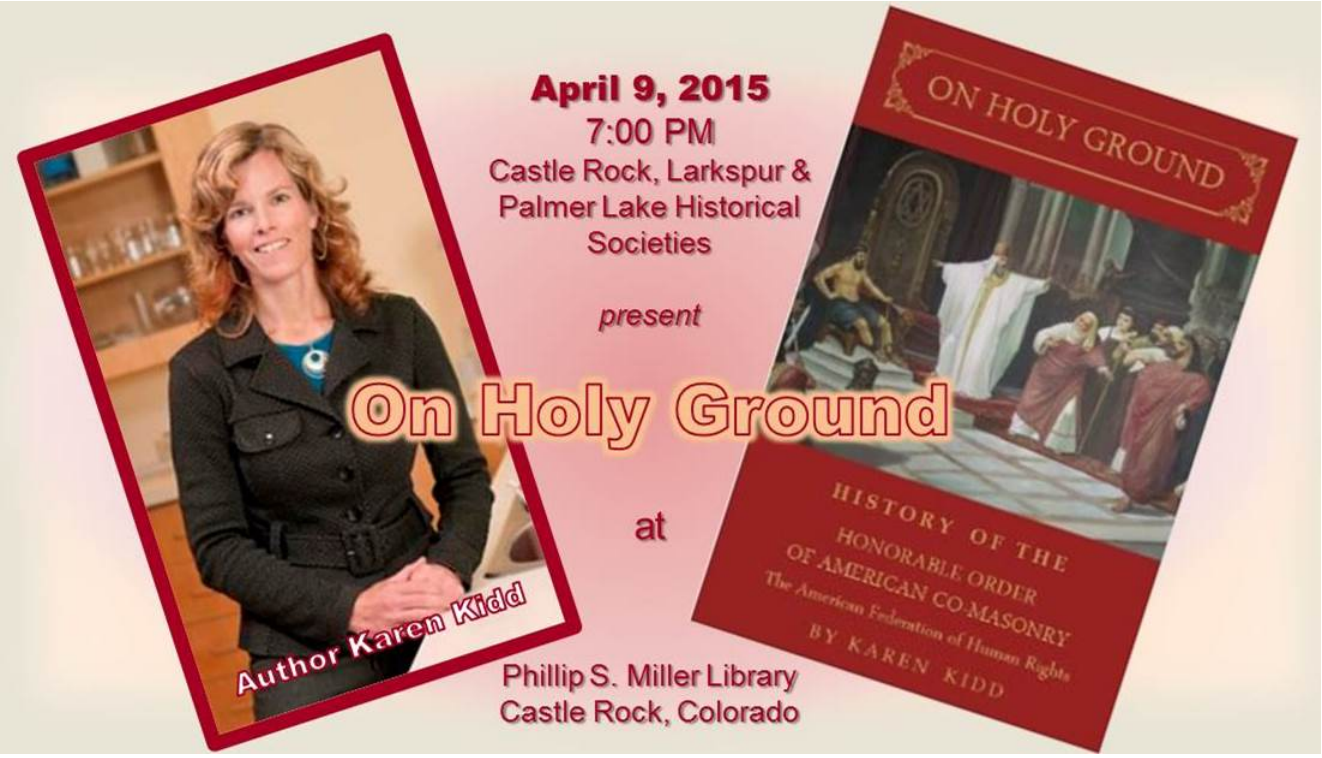
On Holy Ground

…Author Karen Kidd



Three area historical societies, Castle Rock, Larkspur and Palmer Lake, are jointly sponsoring a program about the American Federation of Human Rights. This stimulating, educational program brings Author Karen Kidd giving a detailed history of Co- Masonry, the institution that is the Obedience that admits men and women of all religions and national origins. Ms. Kidd has written two books about Masonry: Haunted Chambers and On Holy Ground, with the latter detailing the American Federation of Human Rights and its international headquarters in Larkspur.

The presentation will be at the Philip S. Miller Library 100 S. Wilcox Street Castle Rock, Co. 80104. Refreshments will be served at 6:45 pm with the presentation starting at 7:00 pm. This presentation is FREE to the public.

If you would like to get a brief understanding of On Holy Ground, you can peruse a book-review on the book by the Phoenix Masonry, Inc..

The Denver Post published an article, "Co-Masonic history still alive in present-day Larkspur" by Elizabeth Hernandez, in their February 26, 2015 Douglas County edition of Your Hub. The Your Hub article can be viewed at AFHR Article.
